Dear Class of 2006:

As graduates taking part in Northeastern's 104th commencement exercises, you will always hold a special place in your university's remarkable history. Thanks in large measure to all of your accomplishments, Northeastern has continued to rise to heightened levels of competitiveness, progress that should serve you well in the years to come. With pride and please, on behalf of the faculty and trustees, I congratulate you on reaching this milestone in your life.

Since this is my final year as Northeastern president, this commencement will be mine as well, and so we share a common interest in our hopes for new successes on the journeys that lie ahead. As you leave Northeastern, I hope you see your time here as the beginning of your learning, not the end. There will always be more to know, deeper levels of understanding and higher levels of performance to attain. Keep growing and searching for knowledge, because to stop learning is, in a real sense, to stop living.

I hope you will seek wisdom and compassion even you pursue knowledge and skill. As you discover, make use of your discoveries. As you learn, teach. As you succeed, share. What you have acquired during your years here can make your community-and all the world-a better place.

I hope, too, that you will keep a place in your heart for Northeastern. You have earned a permanent place among us. We want to be a continuing part of your life and your growth. You are joining generations of graduates linked to one another throughout the past century. With you now in the vanguard, this University, this family of Northeastern, will flourish anew in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Welcome Week T-Shirt 2005

March 4th-12th Spring Break '06

For those students not on co-op, this week was one where many journeys took place. (Even if that meant going back home to your parents' house and sleeping the whole time because you had no money to go away with your friends)

The Center of Community Service sponsored an Alternative Spring Break trip for students to build houses with Habitat for Humanity in California, Florida, or Honduras.

The beach is a popular getaway for Spring Break destinations, especially since the week before students left Boston's temperature was 2 degrees with the wind chill!

Some students chose a colder destination, however, and traveled to Zermatt, Switzerland for a week of skiing and an experience of European Culture at Matterhorn Mountain.

You know you're from Northeastern when...

You've logged on to facebook first in the morning before you have brushed your teeth or checked your MyNeu email.

Suddenly your not a fan of going to "Our House" because they don't take AMEX.

You are no longer a freshman, but aren't really sure what year you are

You equate Activities Period with naptime

You know your party was good when you made the Crime Log in the Northeastern newspaper the following week

You smile when you see a girl with a red key chain

You're a senior, and you still don't know how to navigate the tunnel system

You recognize the entire staff of Huntington Liquors

You've said "Cappy's or BHOP?" after a hockey game

You got drunk off of a Scorpion Bowl at Tiger Lily's before you turned 21

You've heard that BU/BC/Harvard girls are a waste of money

You don't know how to get to Parson's Field

The very mention of the word "trimester " makes you shudder

You've denied cheating at Connor's for Tuesday night trivia while you hide your Wi-fi enabled devices

You consider anything past the Museum of Fine Arts to be too far outbound

It's 2:01am, and you're already walking towards Little Stevie's

You refuse to go to Boston College unless you have someone to drive you

You know there's a frat house behind the Texaco Station...and you've been once... and only once

You've rubbed the Husky's nose for good luck before a final... and you know our real mascot should be a Husky on a cell phone

You can tell when the next E line train is going to arrive by counting the people standing on the platform

At some point you've created your own parking space in the North Lot

You know someone who's put laundry detergent in the Stetson East fountain

You know half a dozen shortcuts to Landsdowne St.

You've cut class at least once on a nice day to play freeze-bie in the Fens

You know the good party apartments only by numbers, not names (610 Columbus, 75 St. Stephen's 118 Hemenway and 400 Mass Ave #3)

You take pride in the fact that the NU Dog House road fan club makes just as much noise as the BU and BC home hockey crowds

You can tell a girl's sorority by what type of Tiffany's bracelet she wears

You don't interrupt when people confuse your school with Northwestern

You know there is a difference between Beirut and Beer Pong, and you consider yourself an expert at both

You'll skip your 9:15am Intro to Sociology, but not your scuba diving or yoga class

You know the phrase "come to our house" involves going to a bar

You live in Roxbury, but pay $42,000 a year to attend a private school

You liked the original Cappy's 1 better than the fancy new building they put up

You know someone who's jumped in the reflecting pool by the Christian Science Center

You've ran back home to grab your I-pod or your cell but can't remember when you ever did that for your required textbook that you had to bring to class everyday

You're comfortable with the terms "middler", "co-op" and "no-op"

You've tried to get into the NASA anti-gravitational room in the Egan Research Center

You consider working out reading a Vogue magazine on the Stairmaster without breaking a sweat

The idea of Kegs-n-Eggs sounds perfectly reasonable, especially on Marathon Monday

After three co-ops, you've made over $20,000, but managed to spend almost all of it living in Boston

You think the phrase "Higher Tuition. Richer Freeland" is hilarious

The Best of Northeastern

* Every year the Northeastern News posts an online survey giving students the opportunity to select the best of the best around Northeastern.

* Categories range from the best pizza place to the best place to live on campus to the best shopping.

* The 2005-2006 survey returned a couple new winners as well as some old time favorites

* The following results were published by the Northeastern News on April 19, 2006.

CHICKEN LOU'S The campus favorite since 2000 received 47% of votes

Best

On-Campus

Eatery

* Move over Wendy's. Stand back, Mond Subs. Chicken Lou's has pummeled the competition once again. Chicken Lou's is housed in a trailer-like building on Forsyth Street next to Cabot Gym and across the street from Dockside Hall. The line for service between classes is often long and cramped, but the food keeps everyone coming back and the business alive. Whether students choose to eat at the picnic tables besides the eatery or grab a sandwich while hustling to class to gorge themselves in fatty goodness, Chicken Lou's has lost its strong hold on Northeastern's famished stomachs. The fast food-like restaurant's self-awareness is notable. Lou's never pretends to be something it isn't. This place knows its food is fat-filled, dripping with grease, yet consumed by the masses. Such self-awareness helps keep the down to eatery vibe going strong. Lou's offers a wide variety of sandwiches and beverages, including the Cholesterol, which is rightfully named, given it consists of bacon, egg, and cheese on the bread of your choice. The breakfast sampler sandwich offers your standard bacon, ham, sausage, three eggs and cheese. For $5.75 this heart attack on a hamburger roll pleases any hungry husky. So go ahead, grab a juice, soda, light or dark roast coffee along with a Cholesterol on a bagel and make it to that 8 a.m. lab fly by on a full stomach.

SHILLMAN HALL One of the university's newer buildings located on the corner of Centennial Commons, Shillman received 47% of votes.

Best Classroom Building

With only four floors and its aesthetically appealing interior and exterior, Shillman Hall was voted Best Classroom Building. The Dunkin' Donuts and air conditioning inside this architectural masterpiece make the idea of summer classes a bit more bearable. As one of the newer buildings on-campus, the computer, audio and visual technology is far superior to Kariotis' dungeon-level classrooms or Robinson's stifling fourth-floor torture chambers. Not only that, but the seminar style, stadium-seating classroom design makes for a clear view of the front of the room no matter where students sit. Rooms are spacious, well-ventilated and very conducive to an interesting learning experience. Although the line at Dunkin' Donuts can get pretty long, it's worth the wait, because nothing beats a savory sausage, egg 'n' cheese sandwich on a croissant while watching "But I'm a Cheerleader" in Gender and Sexuality. Hayden and Richards Halls may both share a Dunkin' Donuts, but the slower than molasses elevator, dilapidated classrooms and uncomfortably close desk setup are just a few of the downfalls that made Shillman outshine them.

EDDIE GRIFFIN The sold out performance in September earned his comic 43% of votes

Best Celebrity Visit

It looks like students prefer comedy over pornography. Eddie Griffin beat out Ron Jeremy in a tight race to be named this year's best celebrity visit to campus. Selling out Blackman Auditorium in September, the actor/comedian/dancer's hour-long act incorporated everything from being a sperm to his distaste for today's politics. The unconventional Griffin smoked on stage, swore up a storm and turned Bill Cosby into a drug dealer and Martin Luther King Jr. into a pimp. Known for his appearances in the "Deuce Bigalow" movies and "Undercover Brother," Griffin got his start on Def Comedy Jam in the early 1990's. He has worked with everyone from Chris Rock to Bernie Mac to Dr. Dre. In 2006 he played a father character in "Date Moive," a similar role to Robert DeNiro's in "Meet the Fockers." Griffin's successes, vulgarity, and more appealing looks may have given him the slight edge over the King of Porn. Or perhaps it was the loud-mouth comic's admiration of the ladies at the university that jolted him to the No. 1 spot. "They got it goin' on," he said in an interview before the September performance. "There must be a lot of happy dicks here."

WEST VILLAGE G & H The two newest residence halls received 49% of votes

KENNEDY HALL The freshman honors residence hall received 23% of votes.

Best

Upperclassman

Housing

★ They're tall, luxurious, and according to students, they're one of the best again. West Village G and H are the top choice for upperclassman housing. With their spacious rooms and colored walls it's not much of a surprise. Opened in 2004, these buildings, which also feature comfortable classrooms, became an instant hit with students and the Boston community. West Village H, the 21+ residence halls, won the Harleston Parker Award given by Boston Society of Architects for most beautiful piece of architecture in the greater Boston area. And if the award-winning looks are not enough to please, the single bedrooms and breathtaking views are sure to satisfy even the pickiest student. There's also an added bonus for those living in the top rooms of West Village H - they can watch Red Sox games from their living rooms without spending a dime on tickets. Both of these residence halls/classroom hybrids are situated on the outskirts of the West Village cluster in west campus. Located close to academic buildings and the Green Line, G and H tend to be more popular than the Davenport Commons - the Columbus Avenue equivalents.

Housing

★ The Hemenway Street gem, Kennedy Hall, was voted by readers as the best freshman residence hall. The five-story, strictly-honors housing is home to more than 200 high-achieving freshmen and provides as much style and luxury as a freshmen college residence hall could. In addition to a spacious common room shared by a suite, the Kennedy kids also get their own bath-rooms. The setup is semi-apartment style, where singles and doubles are attached to the bathroom and common room. With these accommodations Northeastern's most high achieving freshmen can study in silence when they need to, and kick back with their roommates when they want to. Students living in Kennedy also have the option of going to the downstairs game room. There are the classic common room amenities such as pool tables, ping pong and foosball. Not only do Kennedy students have it great at home they also have it great on the streets. Kennedy is down the block from the dining hall and Whole Foods is right up the road, making it easy for the honors student to stock up on brain food. As Kennedy is an exclusively honors residence hall, the students have each other to not only live with, but to work and study with. The convenience of having these in your classes also in your home is very beneficial to these students. Kennedy serves a nourishing environment for two keys to success: collaborative community and companionship. Hard work paid off for these honor students, whether it be the ability to take a midnight run to Cappy's between studying to keep up that 4.0, or having the privacy to study in peace. Kennedy is the underclassman residence hall that brings freshman living to the next level. But with the opening of the new freshman honors residence hall, West Village F, this fall, will Kennedy keep its title?

SPRINGFEST WEEK The annual week-long series of events received 29% of votes.

Best

Time

On campus

It looks like students wanted their NEU. Springfest week was voted Best Time on Campus for the second consecutive year. This year's MTV-themed week titled "I Want my NEU", largely sponsored by the Council for University Programs (CUP), included fashion events, a karaoke night, and the successful concert headlining Dashboard Confessional. Students praised this year's Springfest week for its variety of happenings. Events like NEUnplugged featuring the bands Steel Train and Augustana, and Yo! NEU Raps with the group The Sugarhill Gang gave this Springfest an old school vibe. The varied lineup for the grand finale concert, which consisted of The Violent Femmes, Mix Master Mike, Jurassic 5 and Dashboard Confessional, also went over well with the student body. In addition, Singled Out and Say What?! Karaoke, hosted by "celebrities" like Randy from the "Real World San Diego" and Landon from the "Real World Philadelphia" were popular events. Also Northeastern dropout Damien Fahey visited campus to give a seech on his life as an MTV hot. The cost for this week of fun-filled events? A mere $158,000.

Pizza

Place

★ Boston House of Pizza, located on Huntington Avenue across from the YMCA - just a short walk from Northeastern's Green Line T stop - was voted the prime sport for pizza on campus. For those seeking a gyro, sandwich or just a cheesy slice, BHOP has long been a destination for late night parties, bar-hoppers and studiers in dire need of a snack. Stationed between Huntington Wine and Spirits and raval Capps II, BHOP has been serving the general Northeastern community since 1970. Open until 12:30 a.m., the restaurant is one of few pizza shops in the area that accepts the Husky Card in addition to cash and credit cares. A large variety of salads, pasta, calzones, and other late night snacks is served at a wide range of prices. The array of subs, including everything from a fish sub to eggplant to meatball, can all be purchased for under $6 each. BHOP's pizzas, including chicken, Athenian and Sicilian, range from $6 to $10 for a small and $9 to $15 for a large. Additionally, BHOP currently offers a special: Buy two large pizzas and receive a free 2-liter soda.

SGA The Student Government Association received 33% of the votes

Best Student Group On-campus

* The Student Government Association (SGA) caused many changes on campus over the past year and was voted most active student group. SGA worked with the provost's office to establish an undergraduate research office, revitalized the teacher and course evaluation process and brought a new health insurance plan to campus. They sponsored the Second Annual Undergraduate Research Opportunities Extravaganza and had student groups join together through two Synergy events. They also sought reform in the health center, even before the resignation of the University Sexual Assault Coordinator Laura Weiss and helped create a safe space for the Northeastern University Bisexual, Lesbian, and Gay Association. Perhaps most noteworthy, SGA established direct elections, which will allow students to vote for 2007-08's University student president. Ashley Adams, president of SGA, said that it was "incredible" to accomplish such long-term goals in one year. "We've done things that have been on the roster and on the docket for about 20 years," Adams said. "We've finally gotten those achieved." SGA faced its share of difficulties, such as the forced resignation of its president and executive vice president over the summer and the removal of scholarships for the association's executive board. However, Adams said the past year exceeded her expectations, and she hopes SGA continues to realize its abilities. "I think that this year we've been very very stable and we've come a long way," she said. "And I really just hope that we take this momentum and we keep going and we don't stop."

Sport

The world's oldest hockey arena is filled with excitement, energy, and anticipation when the Northeastern hockey teams take to the ice, hoping to bring in a win. Despite having a less than successful season, hockey was voted best Northeastern sport proving Husky fans in fact do support the players. First year men's coach Greg Cronin, led his players to 3-24-7 overall and a record 3-17-7 in the conference. The team lost to Boston College in the semi-final of the Beanpot, 5-2. They then went on to the consolation game against Harvard and lost 5-0. In her second season as head coach of the women's team, Laura Shuler led her team to a season record of 8-24-1 overall and 6-14-1 in the conference. In the Beanpot, the team lost to Boston College in the semi-final round 4-3 and lost again in the consolation game to Boston University 3-1. They have few wins, but fans still enjoy watching their home teams take to the ice. Jackie Findra, a freshman communications major said she enjoys the atmosphere and participating in the numerous cheers. "The games are exciting and exhilarating," she said. "I always participated in the cheers - You have to." The section located above the goal is known as the Doghouse. Fans gather together in this section wearing all black and cheering for their Huskies. "The Doghouse is loud and can sometimes be offensive, but it's a lot of fun," said Amy Malmberg, a freshman psychology major. * For high fashion, haute couture, cute shops, and good eats, Newbury Street is the place to be. The fifth Avenue of Boston, Newbury Street is the uber-chic stopping ground for the New England fashionista. Stores ranging from the sporty Nike Town to the classy Burberry line the street. As far as finding fashion in Boston, Newbury Street sets the standard for any style. At the start of the street stands the trendy bohemian's paradise, Urban Outfitters. And if boho is not your style, Jasmine Sola has everything the pretty preppy could want. The store also adds a twist of glam into their cleancut style by supplying costume jewelry and textured funky furs. For preppy men, Newbury offers a Ralph Lauren Rugby where one can indulge in all the polos their popped-collar-loving heart desires. Students can also head down the street and visit the Lucky Brand for a synthesis of the new age distressed look and the 1960s hippy homage. Not only does Newbury Street offer all the fashion a Bostonian could want, but it also brings a variety of specialty stores as well. A hit with the college folk is Newbury Comics. This store is more than just a Marvel of DC Comics connoisseur's paradise. Here, one can find posters and music of favorite bands, movies or psychedelic glow with dark furry prints. And to fulfill a hungry stomach while shopping, the swanky Samsie is on the top Zagat-rated restaurants in Boston. This four-star hotspot offers the best in steaks and Pan-American cuisine. Game & Court Homecoming '05

Homecoming was joined with Family weekend so both Northeastern parents and students came to cheer on their team.

The band got the crowd going from the bleachers with their upbeat songs and the cheerleaders continued to instill spirit despite the rain.

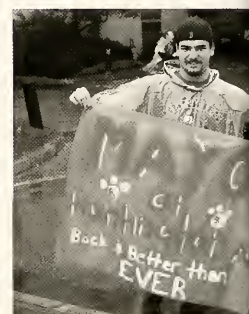

The Huskies went head to head with William & Mary on a rainy October 15th. Despite the poor weather conditions several hundred fans showed up to support the team. The Huskies lost 44-41 in double overtime.

The Mayor of Huntington Avenue made an appearance at the game, joining in with fans to show their school pride.

The 2005 Homecoming King Keith Forc & Queen Ashley Adams were personally congratulated by President Freeland.

Carnival & Mayor Homecoming '05

Heidi Buchanan was elected as the 2005 Mayor of Huntington Avenue and was greeted by many alumni excited for the return of the old tradition.

Northeastern's very own husky, "King", made an appearance at the carnival where he greeted students, alumni, and family guests.

The Mayor of Huntington Avenue campaign was first established in 1955 with the purpose of promoting school spirit. The elected Mayor became the unofficial representative of the University's major campus social events.

Homecoming weekend wouldn't be complete without the banner competition for students to demonstrate their Husky pride.

Wax hand molds, balloon animals, fresh cotton candy and plenty of caramel apples were available during the Homecoming Carnival

Parade & Floats Homecoming '05

The Homecoming Parade took student groups down Huntington Avenue while students cheered them on.

Ponchos were the popular look sported for the weekend, but everyone still made sure their red and black was visible!

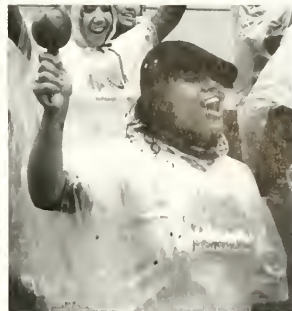

A little wet weather couldn't stop this party from lasting all day long!

Husky fans came out to watch the parade and support their favorite float.

Student Groups, Fraternities, and Sororities began after Midnight Madness the night before the parade to construct the floats instructions to couples willing to demonstrate their kissing. The main event of Sex Week was Condom Casino. Over 650 students flocked to the Curry Student Center to try to “get lucky.” Popular casino games were set up throughout the Ballroom and students redeemed their chips for condoms.

"I Want My NEU" Springfest 2006

Playing off the '80s MTV slogan, Springfest '06, "I Want My NEU," kicked off the fun with NU's own version of the classic dating game show, Single Out.

Hosted by a MTV alumni, Real World San Diego's Randy, the spoof made for an amusing evening in the CSC Ballroom as contestants competed for dates with their NU classmates.

Far from Dire Straits,
this year's Springfest brought plenty of excitement to campus with the week's events stylized in the form of
MTV entertainment,
old and NU.

Keeping its MTV beat, students competed to make and model their clothing creations as Fashionably Loud rocked CSC with WRBB spinning old-school tunes throughout the night.

The week also included a welcome back to Blackman Auditorium for TR host and former NU student, Damien Fahey, who discussed his experiences at NEU and on MTV then took questions from aspiring VJs.

"I Want My NEU" Springfest 2006

Even if they couldn't scrounge together enough laundry money for the Springfest '06 main stage at Matthews Arena, students were still treated to an array of quality music for free all week long.

Hosting NEUnplugged with special guests Steel Train and Augustana AfterHOURS sparked the fuse to the flavors of sounds that made Springfest '06 "I Want My NEU."

Certainly not money for nothing, Springfest's culmination, its annual concert featured a once in a lifetime line-up that mixed genres and generations. At $5 a pop for tickets, students paid a little money for a lot, of something special. Now, that's the way you do it.

Hawaiian noises, bangin' on the bongos like a chimpanzee, veteran rockers. The Violent Femmes strutted their stuff on stage, then stopped to check out the crowd who's big hands were blistered from applause.

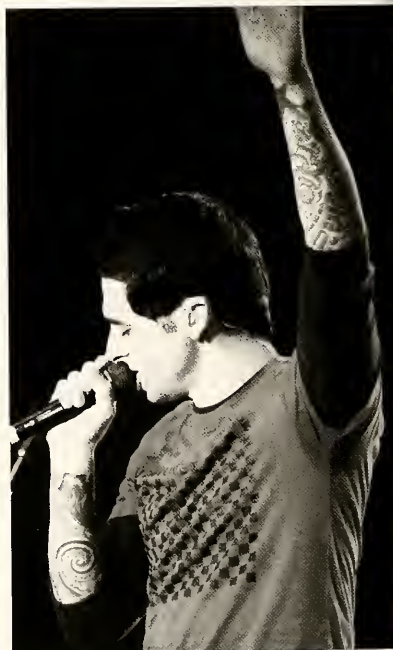

Hot in pursuit, alt. hip-hop icons, Jurassic 5 brought their playground tactics to NU's concrete schoolyard followed by plenty more body movin' from Beastie Boy Mix Master Mike.

"I Want My NEU" Springfest 2006

After Mix Master Mike got plenty of action from the back section, Chris Carrabba (who plays the guitar on that MTV) and his band Dashboard Confessional proved Springfest '06 was far from a screaming infidelity to the Northeastern community as they let loose their own sounds so soothing.

The Spectrum

The Spectrum Literary Arts Magazine includes a wide variety of original material collected through submissions. The editors and members toil to organize and publish this work twice a year (Spring and Fall). The Spectrum strives to spread the appreciation of written and visual arts.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS & CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The Student Government Association serves as the united voice of the student body. Senate committees handle various aspects of university life. SGA voices students' opinions on: university budgeting, financial aid, program requests, student activity fee allocation, athletics, judicial affairs, afterHOURS, public safety, dining services, housing, health services and the Curry Student Center.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS & CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Cajun food, Richard Freeland's smiling face, green and purple beads, and throngs of students characterized the fourth annual Mardi Gras Breakfast at Levine Marketplace. A live band serenaded the students as they entered the event, which would not be complete without the usual, ominous line of party-goers. Many students break up the monotony of winter and brave the cold for this exciting experience.

Prizes included t-shirts, gift bags which were won by finding miniature baby toys in your King Cake, stacking the most fruit loops on a straw without your hands, or flipping a pancake the most times while walking. From 10 p.m. to midnight, students ate crepes, cakes, eggs, and bacon, among other foods. The old Louisiana tradition of Mardi Gras was upheld beautifully by the Northeastern students with the carefree attitude that usually accompanies the festival.

The Women and Leadership Conference, sponsored by LEGO and Northeastern Xcel, addressed issues directly focused for women leaders. Northeastern's Females' Center of Excellence and Leadership is a femalebased student organization dedicated to the professional, academic and personal development of its members. NU Xcel strives to provide its members with leadership, community service and career advancement opportunities.

The Women and Leadership Conference 2006.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS & CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The Campus Recreation department organizes various intramural sports teams including: 3 on 3 Basketball, 5 on 5 Basketball, Dodgeball, Flag Football, Racquetball, Tennis, 4 on 4 Volleyball, Short Ice Broomball, Mini Lacrosse, Ice Hockey, Floor Hockey, Roller Hockey, Indoor Soccer, Kickball, Softball, Quickball, 6 on 6 Volleyball, Wallyball, Wiffleball, & Inner Tube Waterpolo

Broomball is one of the more unique intermural sports at Northeastern. Five players from each team, armed with helmets and brooms and the ice. Dressed in sneakers, the teams have three twelve minute periods to use the brooms to knock the round ball into the goal.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS & CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Students returned from winter break to the fabulous Northeastern. Complete with a Vegas theme, the second annual Winter Carnival enticed students back to the Curry Student Center with games, photos with Elvis, free food and prizes.

“What happens in Curry
stays in Curry.”

The Northeastern Huskies and Outdoor Club is all about spending time in the great outdoors no matter where the outdoors is. You can find them hiking at the cabin in New Hampshire, skiing or riding at Sunday River or even camping out on the quad.

Northeastern Through the Year

The Year in Review

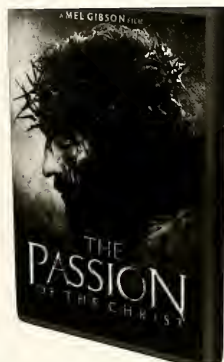

Right, October '03:

Former actor, Arnold Schwarzenegger elected California governor on October 8th. Schwarzenegger defeated incumbent Governor Gray Davis, the first California governor to be recalled in history.

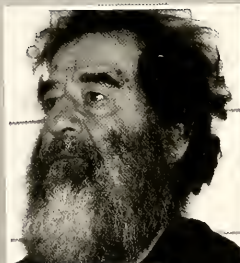

Below, February '04:

The Passion of the Christ premieres among a sea of controversy. Mel Gibson funded the film about the last twelve hours of the life of Jesus Christ. It was nominated for three Academy Awards: best cinematography, best makeup, and best original score.

December '03:

The first outbreak of Mad Cow Disease is discovered in Washington state. The U.S. governments works to place restrictions to enhance the safety of the American beef supply, including a meatpacking ban on the use of sick cattle.

December '03:

Former Iraqi leader, Saddam Hussein, is captured by U.S. Marines. He was captured near Tikrit, Iraq on December 14th in a small hole.

May '04:

The final episode of "Friends" premiered on May 6, 2004. The sitcom ran for ten years at the top of TV ratings and featured a stellar cast, including Jennifer Aniston, Courtney Cox, Matthew Perry, Lisa Kudrow, Matt LeBlanc, and David Schwimmer.

February '04:

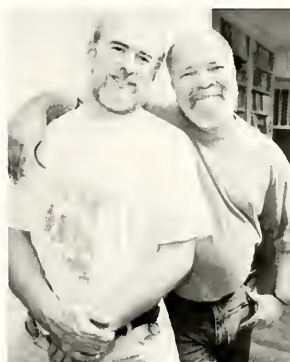

Patriots beat the Panthers in Superbowl XXXVIII at the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas. Quarterback, Tom Brady, played brilliantly as he led the team to victory.

Justin Timberlake and Janet Jackson performed at Super Bowl XXXVIII. At the closure of their performance, Timberlake pulled off the covering to her right breast which was veiled by a sun-shaped nipple decoration.

Below, June '04:
Former president, Ronald Reagan, dies at age 93 after a ten-year bout with Alzheimer's disease. He is best known for leading a conservative revolution that set the economic tone of the 1980's and hastening the end of the Cold War.

Above, May '04:
Ed Kelley and Bart Casimir celebrate their union after gay marriage takes effect in Massachusetts on May 17, 2004.

Left, July '04:
Lance Armstrong wins his 6th Tour de France and cements his place as one of the greatest athletes of all time. Eight years ago, Armstrong was given less than a fifty percent chance of overcoming testicular cancer that had spread to his lungs and his brain.

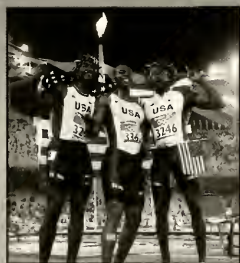

The Year in Review

Right, April '05:

The first Polish pope, Pope John Paul II, died of natural causes in the Vatican. He was succeeded by the German Pope Benedict XVI, who believes Europe should return to fundamental Christian values.

Below, February '05:

National Hockey League Commissioner Gary Bettman officially canceled the season. Owners and players failed to come to an agreement on the salary cap for players. Here, Washington Capitals' star, Bryan Muir, is shown during a game.

September '04:

Shawn Crawford, center, celebrates his gold medal in the 200 meters with his teammates. The 2004 Summer Olympic Games were held in Athens. The U.S. brought home 103 medals, 36 of which were gold.

November '04:

Incumbent, George Bush, defeated Senator John Kerry in the 2004 Presidential Election. Like in 2000, the election was determined by one state. Ohio's 20 electoral votes gave Bush his margin of victory.

January '05:

Condoleezza Rice was confirmed as President Bush's Secretary of State after the Senate's vote of 85-11, replacing Colin Powell.

January '05:

A mudslide in La Chita, California killed 10 people and destroyed 13 homes. Another 13 homes were deemed inhabitable.

Left, August '05:
Hurricane Katrina, a Category 4 storm, pounded the Gulf Coast; New Orleans, in particular. The levees broke, submerging the city in water. New Orleans had little military or police help so volunteers and monetary aid flooded in to the city.

Below, March '05:
The federal court is given the right to decide whether the feeding tube should be reinserted into the mouth of Terri Schiavo who had been in vegetative state for 15 years. The court ruled against replacing the tube and she died 13 days later.

Above, December '04:
On December 26, 2004, an earthquake in the middle of the Indian Ocean triggered devastating tsunamis that killed thousands. Southeast Asia, Indonesia, Sri Lanka, India, and Thailand were hit the hardest by waves of over 100 feet. The earthquake was the second largest ever recorded.

Left, June '05:
England's Prime Minister, Tony Blair, and U.S. President, George Bush, talk to the press after four bombs exploded on a bus and on three of London's subway trains during the morning rush hour.

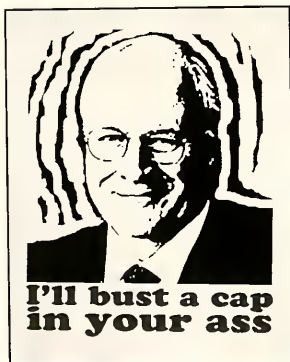

Below, July '06:

Israel launched bombing raids on Lebanon after Hezbollah forces crossed into Israel, killing three soldiers and taking two more prisoner. Israel has since bombed Hezbollah forces inside Lebanon and the Lebanese militant group continues to pound northern Israel.

Right, July '06:

Italy's captain, Fabio Cannavaro showcases the team's trophy after their World Cup win over France, 5-3. The game was decided by a shootout after a 1-1 draw in the final game in Berlin.

Above, March '06:

Vice President, Dick Cheney, accidentally shot lawyer friend, Harry Whittington, while hunting for quail. Whittington was hit in the neck, face, and torso. Twenty-four hours passed before the Bush administration publicized the incident.

Right, December '05:

A New York City transit strike strands millions of commuters after a strike is called on December 19th after talks disintegrate with the Metropolitan Transportation Authority. The union is fined one million dollars each day of the strike. No contact was finalized before the strike ended on December 22nd.

The Tour de France was riddled with scandals after seven-time winner, Lance Armstrong retired. A day before the start of the race, Ivan Basso, Jan Ullrich, and Oscar Sevilla were suspended for drug use. Then, the gold medal was taken from Floyd Landis after he tested positive for synthetic testosterone.

Below, April '06:

A bill is drafted to allow immigrants who have lived in the U.S. for 5 or more years, paid taxes, learned English, and worked to become citizens. The deal falls apart and thousands of immigrants rally for immigration reform.

To the class of 2006:

I'm sure you have heard as much "Congratulations!" "Way to Go!" and "Good Luck!" as you can tolerate. Here's a new one...you're welcome. You have been given a gift, a very expensive gift.. That gift may have been funded by yourself, your parents, or the U.S. department of financial aid, but the memories you have are priceless, and they will last way past your last loan payment. (I suggest you think about that kick ass time you had your freshman year on Marathon Monday while you write the check, it makes it easier to bear)

You, the senior class, are a collection of individuals with amazing talent, creativity, intelligence and determination. You began college when the country was in the height of turmoil, yet you were able to focus and excel. You survived weird random roommates; sub-zero winters; the quarter system; riots; summer classes; five Halloweens, Super Bowl Sundays, St. Patrick's Days, Marathon Mondays, Cinco de Mayos (pretty much any "holiday" that involves drinking); World Series; parking in Boston; 21st birthdays; presidential elections; Uggs and popped-collars; natural disasters; the walk of shame; the loss of cell phones; credit cards, keys, and money during a night out; study abroad; dining hall food; middler year writing; break-ups; co-ops; and by the time you read this...graduation. You now head for the next stop along your life line.

I am not a senior myself but for those of you whom I have had the privilege of meeting, I am inspired and motivated by your example and your energy. I can say without a doubt, you are the best class yet to graduate for Northeastern University, and leave very big shoes for the rest of us to fill.

There is no way to capture the past five years in 296 pages. It's not possible with 296,000 pages. My staff and I have done our best to represent Northeastern as it is today. I'm sure five, ten, twenty years from now NU will be very different, but it will where it is because of the influence of students like you. Reciprocally, you will be where you are in twenty years because of your time and experience here at Northeastern. I believe you all possess the skills and the desire to accomplish amazing things in the future, and with those accomplishments I hope you pull this book from your shelf, dust it off, and look back with a smile.

Now it's time for the real world. I hope you continue to be a shining example of character and perseverance. Since you won't need luck, from the bottom of my heart I wish you all the success and happiness in the world.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2006!

Warmest Wishes,

Jordan Berry

Editor-in-Chief, Cauldron Yearbook

Thank you more than words can express to:

Andrea Miller, our advisor, for your continual enthusiasm and desire to improve this publication. Your fort is truly motivating; Caren Orlick Korin, for doing anything it takes to get the job done. Meeting on Sunday afternoons to pull labels is going above and beyond, and will not be forgotten; Tara Anderson, thanks for being my InDesign expert, spending your summer afternoons in the Cauldron office, and putting up with my last minute page changes. Year after year, you are my saving grace; Sean & Jeff in the business office for always answering questions and offering help-with a smile; John, Dirk, Oliver, Laura, Bob, Gayle and everyone else in Student Activities for their support and assistance especially during the clean-up after the fire; Times New Roman, Northeastern News, RBB, NUTV, The Spectrum, The Onyx and all the other members of media board, after all we're all this together. The photographers at Matthew's Arena without who there wouldn't be a sports section. The Commencement Office, Office of the Registrar, Office of the President, and University Relations. Without you the 2006 Cauldron would not be in existence.

Sincerest Thanks,
Jordan

Life isn't days and years,
It's what you do with time,
And with all the goodness and grace that's inside you.
Make a beautiful life...
The kind of life you deserve.
There are two things to aim at in life:
First to get what you want; and after that to Enjoy it.
Andrea Christina Congratulations!
We are very proud of and happy for you, and you are you are wished much love and happiness as you face many bright tomorrows
Love Always and Forever,
Mom, Dad, and Michelle

Nick,

You are a beautiful son and brother. May your sincere and enthusiastic hunger to learn and succeed lead you to great and worthy accomplishments in helping to improve the quality of human life. May all your research in chemistry be pleasing to the greatest chemist of all!

May God's blessing always fall upon you. We love and respect you beyond words and we are so very proud of you.

Love Always and Forever,
Mom, Dad, Katina, & Stefan

Rose:
We are very proud of not only the last 5 years but ALL of your 21 years of accomplishments and wish you the WORLD of opportunities that are within your grasp!
Mom, Dad, Christina, Nana, Uncle Minnie

Congratulations Daniel
We are very proud of you!

Mom Dad & Aaron

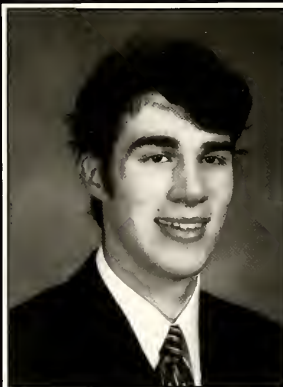

Son,

We are so proud of you and of what you have achieved.

Each year you give us more reasons to love you. You have grown up to be a wise and mature young adult. We wish you much success in your future.

With all of our love,
Mom and Dad

We have watched you grow from a cute little boy to a tall handsome guy and we're proud of all your accomplishments. We know you'll be a success wherever life leads you. As you make your way toward your ultimate goal, remember you'll always have a place in our hearts and our home. Congratulations on your degree!
Love Mom & Dad

Sanjin Osmancevic

Dear Son,

If we could have chosen any son in the world for our own, one with warmth and kindness, intelligence and wit, one we would have loved from the moment we saw him-we would have chosen you. We congratulate you and wish you a lot of success, health and luck in your life.

Your mom and dad

Erica,

For one moment the sky stood still, while a new star was born. You are that star! You shine in everything you are a part of. You have followed your dreams, working very hard to accomplish your goals. You have made us very proud of you. We wish you the very best in life.

With all our love,
Mom, Dad & Nicky

CONGRATULATIONS!!

We are so proud of you!

Your Education is something no one can ever take away from you.

GREAT JOB !!

Love, Mom Dad, Mike Erin, Keri, and Mike

*Christina,
We are as proud of you as parents can be: experiencing your growth from an undecided freshman to a young professional in your senior year.
Keep your enthusiasm,
remember your school years,
and enjoy your professional life.
Love Mom and Dad*

Stephanie Gene...

You have worked so hard for this achievement and yet you still strive for even better. I have such admiration for the woman you are becoming and I wanted to let you know that I HVE ALWAYS BEEN and CONTINUE TO BE, so PROUD OF YOU...MY DAUGHTER...MY FRIEND.
Congratulations~Love Mom

Kate Ashley O'Donnell

Congratulations to our beautiful Kate Ashley!
We blinked and the past five years have flown by.
You entered Northeastern as a teenager and are now emerging as confident, talented, young woman.

Your journey brought with it so many adventures and amusing "Kate Stories" -
Remember the "Pepto Incident"?
And how about those "Green Raviolis"?
These stories were made all the more hilarious by your telling of them.

Just look at all you've accomplished, Dear's List,
Pep Band, Concert Band, and Rock Ensemble.
Great achievements and we're going to miss them all.

Kate, you have a dream that we know you'll work hard to reach and we'll be with you every step of the way.

We Love You and We're Very Proud of You.

As we said to you in '01,
"We are, and always will be, your Perfect Fans."

God Watch over you! All Our Love Always,

Mom & Dad

To Kate,
Congratulations!
You are totally good/hot/awesome/light globes

Jessica Cunha

Your achievements are not a surprise to us. We always expected the most from you and you never disappointed us. We are so proud of all you have achieved, but most of all we are proud of the wonderful person you are.

Wishing you continued success in law school and happiness in life.

Congratulations,

Love you, Mom & Dad

Congratulations Sis!

It's finally over but you'll always be my hero
Love, Chris

Maria,
You paved the path to success and happiness through all your hard work and dedication to your goals. You thank us repeatedly for all we do for you, even though you deserve everything you have and much more. Congratulations on reaching this important milestone... you truly earned it!
We are beyond proud of your achievements, and look forward to being part of each new beginning in your life.
With love and support always,
Dad & Janice

Maria,
You continue to amaze us with your perseverance and talent. We are truly proud of your accomplishments and your commitment to helping others. We know we have been blessed with a wonderful daughter and granddaughter, and our love and support will be with you always.

We Love You Always,
Mom and Grandma

CONGRATULATIONS, MICHAEL on all your accomplishments. We admire your hard work and perseverance. your charming personality will open many doors. Embrace the challenges and changes your future holds. Rachel Lynn Ward

Ever since you were born you truly have been
"the bundle of joy".

Rachel, you are one of the rare people whose dreams will become a reality. Always be strong, yet remain sensitive.

It is the core of who you are. Find happiness in the path you select. Only you can choose the life you want to follow.

Remember we are with you on this path always.

There are no words to describe our height of pride in all your accomplishments.

You are our star - Congratulations!

With all our love,

Mom & Dad

Jessica Legros

*Jessica,
Your accomplishments while at NED reflect the hard working, dedicated and professional person you are. You made the most of what NED had to offer and for this you will be (and already are) benefiting from all you have experienced. We love you and are so very proud of you!*

To our Dearest
Sabrina Amanda

Our pride and joy,
Congratulations!

Sabrina, we are extremely proud of you.

You have met every obstacle throughout your years at Northeastern University with style, grace, intellect, and perseverance.

*As we watched you develop into an independent,
self-reliant young woman, we soared with admiration.*

Always keep your beautiful smile and unique sense of humor.

These qualities will lighten the load of challenges that you will face in the future.

No dream is unattainable with your special qualities and desire to achieve.

We know, Sabrina, that you will be extremely successful in all of your endeavors. May the significant experiences you have encountered at NEU be the first of many triumphs in your life as you embark upon your career.

Our undying support, unconditional love and respect will always be there for you. Your special loving spirit, your strong determination, and your kind and giving heart will serve you well on your journey to the future.

With the motivation and incredibly good heart that you possess, life is an open door of possibilities.

We love you very much!

*Always, forever, and beyond,
Mommy, Daddy, Sandy and Dominick*

Nick...

". . . Your hearts know in silence the secrets of the days and the nights. But your ears thirst for the sound of your heart's knowledge. You would know in words that which you have always known in thought. You would touch with your fingers the naked body of your dreams.

And it is well you should. The hidden well-spring of your soul must needs rise and run murmuring to the sea; And the treasure of your infinite depths would be revealed to your eyes. but let there be noscales to weigh your unknown treasure; And seek not the depths of your knowledge with staff or sounding line. For self is a sea boundless and measureless.

Say not, "I have found the truth," but rather, "I have found a truth." Say not, "I have found the path of the soul." Say rather, "I have met the soul walking upon my path." For the soul walks upon all paths. The soul walks not upon a line, neither does it grow like a reed. The soul unfolds itself, like a lotus of countless petals."

- Khalil Gibran

As you seek your life's passion, may you find joy, enrichment, love, laughter . . . and the truth of your soul

I will always be there . . .

True Greatness is not talking about what you can and will do...true greatness is having the ability to recognize opportunity and to size it. As this chapter closes and you enter the world of endless possibilities, know this; we love; are extremely proud of you; and are in awe of all that you have accomplished-you truly exemplify greatness!

Congratulations! We love you!
Mom, Dad, and Kimberly

When we first dropped you off at college you were just a boy out of high school, not knowing that the next five years would turn you into the man you have become. Now it is time for you to go out there and leave a new mark on the world. We could not be more proud of you!

Love, Dad & Mom

Jeff,
You've finally grown into your mouth. You are becoming what you were born to be. We are so very proud of you.

Love,
Uncle & Aunt

*I believe in you...
In your selfless goodness,
in the way you face each day with a commitment to your life and the things that really matter.
I believe in the decisions that you make,
in the careful consideration
you give each challenge, in the perseverance you have shown
when I might give up.
I am so proud of you baby!
I love you, Nefrey*

*I have always looked up to you ever since we were little and I hope that someday I will be as successful as you are today.
I love you man!*

Love lots, Jillie

Wow, 22 years old, 17 years in school, your 3rd graduation - this time a biggie - Bachelor of Science in Engineering (loads of work), all the life changes, all the friends, all the smiles, all the growing up stuff, all the things you have done, all you have accomplished, Great going Michael -- Just think what you can do in the next 100 years!

Love, Mom and Dad

Jamie Williams

Dear Jamie,

*You have made ALL of us very proud.
We wish you all the luck in the world
no matter what "road" you take.*

*All our love,
Dad, Mom, Kevin and Kelly*

Carla Marie Reidy

*Our darling Carla,
We are so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments.
You have grown into an amazing young woman with such a bright future ahead of you. You are the architect of your dreams, only limited by your imagination. Follow your passion, and you will find happiness in life.*

*With all our love,
Mom and Dad*

Adam Eric Rosen

Adam,

Your hard work and dedication has given you the opportunity to earn this prestigious degree. Now is the time in your life where you can reach for the dreams you have and know there is no limit to what you can achieve. We are very proud of all your accomplishments and know you will succeed in fulfilling your future goals. You will always be our heart and soul.

With all our love,
Mom and Dad

Adam,

Congrats! You're done with college and ready to start living with dreams. No matter what life has in store we will always look up and admire you, as we always have. We're lucky to have you in our lives to offer your continuous protection and guidance, even though at times it may seem like we don't appreciate it. We love you and will always support your future decisions.

Love always,
Elana and Chelsey

Bobby French

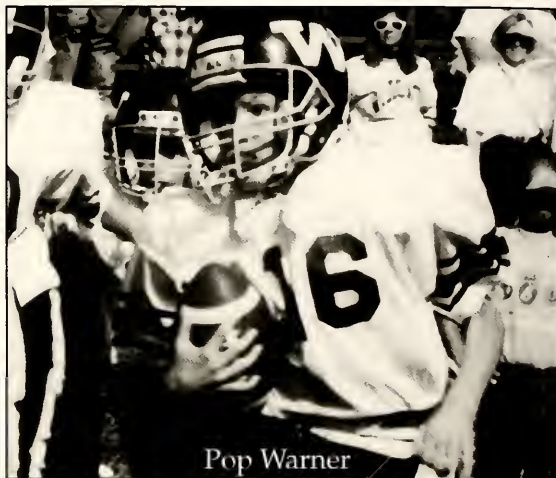

Bob,
You're living proof that dreams really do come true. You set your goals high and never let up until they come true. We are so proud of you, your goals, and most of all, the personal you've become through it all.

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Kerri & Britt

* I'm so proud of you Bob, Love Nana

Welcome to Husky Nation.

Get Involved and Give Back

Giving back is an important part of the Husky tradition. As Northeastern alumni, you are a critical part of the future. Volunteer for class and college programs, join a regional chapter, make an annual gift—get involved today!

Stay Informed

Read the Northeastern magazine, watch the Husky Nation alumni video, and check out the official Northeastern Alumni Web site at www.alumni.neu.edu.

Keep in Touch

Life moves on, especially for new alumni. If you move, change jobs, get a new e-mail address, or have news, let us know. Visit our update page on the Alumni Web site and tell us how to stay in touch.

Spread the Husky Spirit

Northeastern's regional chapter program allows you to stay connected and be an ambassador for the University across the country and around the world. Join our chapters in Massachusetts, New York, Washington D.C., California, and Florida, and spread the word. Become part of our growing chapter program and inquire about one in your area.

For all information on Northeastern alumni events, programs, and regional chapters, please visit the Office of Alumni Relations Web site at www.alumni.neu.edu.

MEMBERS HELPING MEMBERS

Northeastern University Federal Credit Union (NUFCU) was founded in 1968 to help Northeastern University employees, students, alumni, and their immediate families gain access to a wide range of highly competitive financial products and services. Members help members by providing a source for low cost credit while enjoying a high rate of return on their savings. Because NUFCU is a non-profit institution, all earnings are returned to credit union members in the form of dividends and improved products and services.
